Elizabeth Gregory Home

Transitioning women from homelessness

Our Mission

The mission of Elizabeth Gregory Home is to serve women who are recovering from homelessness by providing transitional supportive housing and hospitality that will help them move towards an enriched life within the community.

Our Values

We build our services on the following values:

- Mutual respect that enables each person to learn from the other
- Individual accountability and responsibility
- A safe, healthy, healing environment that provides for life's basic needs
- Relationships and services with coaching, skill-building, and mentoring to develop goals and action plans
- Community-building within our home and with neighbors

Spiritual direction and guidance We believe that women leaving shelters need support to build the skills, confidence, and self-esteem necessary to ensure self-sufficiency in their lives and reunite with their loved ones.
